Message from the Head

Dear parents and carers,

Thursday evening was a bit of a highlight for us at Kobi as we had our Year 6 children (now year 7) return for their graduation. It was a lovely, sunny evening and it was great to see them chatting and mingling with each other and staff. They were honestly so happy to see each other. I often reflect on the resilience they showed to move on to secondary school without any induction days and never did they complain about the things they missed out in the summer term that year 6 get to experience. Not just things like, post SATs activities and a performance but the last of many things...last Funday, last seaside trip, last sports day. I won't go on but they took everything in their stride and to see them so happy and positive was a delight.

I have organised a parent zoom for Monday 12th October at 9.30am. I hope to be able to update you on teaching and learning generally, assessment, early parent / carer meetings and otherwise just a chance to chat and see what is on your minds! (Hopefully I can help.) It is a bit of a strange feeling not having you in the building at all and to those of you who are parents of nursery children; a genuine well done!! Not coming into the classroom to settle your children I'm sure has made this a more emotional time. Let me reassure you though, they are doing brilliantly!

Have a good weekend,

Belinda
